Talented IT consultants will always be in demand. In today's business environment, the IT professional is as crucial to a company's health as a surgeon is to his patient. Without you, the business' heart stops beating, systems shut down and mission-critical work comes to a halt.

our primary mission is putting you to work. We place our consultants with the world's most powerful companies and put them in a position to succeed, learn and develop their professional skills.

Loyalty is a Two Way Street

If you work for Signature, you are a member of an elite team. We provide our people with top-notch benefits packages, exceptional pay rates and, most importantly, a stimulating environment. Top people are difficult to find, so we do everything in our power to keep you on our team. No matter what you are looking for, Signature can hire you as W-2, Staff or 1099 consultant, and we can provide you with a variety of benefits, some of which are listed below:

- Medical, Dental, Vision, STD, LTD
- 401K
- Paid Time Off Options
- Weekly Pay
- Continuous Placement Program
- Training and Certification Assistance

This philosophy has proven to be a smashing success. Thousands of IT Professionals are proud to call themselves Signature consultants, and our team covers the entire nation, and beyond.

Finally, our retention rates, both with our clients and our team members, validate our unique approach. Our clients turn to us because they know Signature is simply better than the rest.

Let us prove it to you, too.

Signature recognizes the IT consultant's crucial role in the functionality, maintenance and growth of virtually every business in the world. We pride ourselves on treating you with the respect that you deserve.

But It's More Than Just Words

Anyone can pay lip service to their consultants, but at Signature we let our actions speak for themselves. Without our uniquely talented consultants, resource managers and account managers, Signature would be just another staffing firm. That's why we find the top people and create an environment that fosters their abilities, builds leaders and breeds loyalty.

As a Signature consultant, you can be confident that
