

Why Use Signature?

If a staffing company wants to be the best, it should ask itself this question every day. You have myriad choices when it comes to staffing your project, and it can be difficult to tell one company from the next.

When you're sick, you don't send out a wave of RFPs to find a doctor. You call your doctor, the one you trust. When you have an IT need, you'll call Signature.

At Signature, we built our business with the understanding that, ultimately, it's our people that will set us apart. So we recruit and retain the top IT professionals, proven resource managers and experienced account managers. Then we give them the freedom to do what they do best — satisfy the client every time.

The way we see it, our clients use Signature for one simple reason: Staffing is a business of execution, and Signature out-executes its competition. Period.

Our employees are empowered to make decisions, ask questions and do whatever it takes to meet the client's needs. Signature's people know that with this trust comes the highest level of accountability, which keeps everyone focused on what we do best.

Ultimately, we look at it like this: When you're sick, you don't send out a wave of RFPs to find a doctor. You call your doctor, the one you trust. When you have an IT need, you'll call Signature.

The solutions that Signature provides impact the mission-critical core of your business. When you have a need, we want you to view Signature like you view your doctor. Signature is the one you can trust.

We can sell our services on our price, our speed and our experience, but we choose to sell on that which truly sets us apart: the strength of our people.

Signature provides top quality staffing solutions. That's all we do, and we do it better than anyone else.

That's our Signature.
