

Signature Consultants nominated to participate in Staffing Industry Analysts' Best Staffing Firms to Work For program

Fort Lauderdale, FL – November 17, 2010 -- Signature Consultants (www.sigconsult.com), the nation's 26th largest IT staffing company has been nominated to participate in Staffing Industry Analysts' Best Staffing Firms to Work For program. Signature Consultants has previously been nominated for the Best Place to Work in Charlotte in 2008, 2009, and 2010 by the Charlotte Business Journal. Having ranked #7 (2008), #6 (2009), and most recently on #3 (2010), Signature is proud to be nominated in their first national campaign with the Staffing Industry Analysts.

Signature Consultants' employees will be surveyed anonymously by Quantum Workplace to measure their level of engagement within the company. The survey will consist of 37 questions and the surveys will need to be complete by January 7th 2011.

"Having been notified of this nomination as Best Staffing Firm to Work For is truly honoring for our entire Signature family. Signature has always believed and focused our company by placing the employees and consultants first, as they truly are our most valued resource. Being ranked the #3 Best Place to Work in Charlotte in 2010 and top ten awards in '08 and '09, I have tremendous confidence in our debut campaign on the national level. Our consultants and employees should be extremely proud of their hard work and dedication which ultimately has led to this nomination and our rapid growth over the past 14 years," stated Jay Cohen, Signature Consultants President and CEO.

Signature Consultants will be notified by January 27, 2011 if they are a finalist and the winners will be revealed at the Staffing Industry Analysts Executive Forum March 1-3, 2011.
