Signature Consultants expands its service offerings with the introduction of “Signature Solutions”

Charlotte -- Signature Consultants (www.sigconsult.com), the nation's 26th largest IT staffing company announces the creation of a new specialized division- Signature Solutions. Signature Solutions partners with clients to deliver consulting solutions surrounding Technology, Process, and Change initiatives where Signature shares in the risk and responsibility for solution delivery. “We accomplish this by hiring and retaining consulting specialists in these disciplines and leveraging Signature Solutions’ Engagement Model to ensure our ability to deliver the right team at the right time” states Chris Kronzer, Director of Signature Solutions.

Signature Solutions Engagement Model is a multi-step process developed to ensure that both Signature Solutions and its clients document and understand each party's specific commitments. Mark Nussbaum COO of Signature stated, “Working hand in hand, developing a solid project plan and sharing the risk is our approach, because that is what our clients are requesting and it's what we will deliver”

Highlights of Signature Solutions focus includes: program/project management, business analysis & requirements, change management, QA, EPM, risk management, as well as software release management.
