

Signature Consultants Expands Des Moines Office

Des Moines – November 16, 2012 – Signature Consultants, a leading IT staffing firm celebrating its 15th year in business, announced it has expanded the size of its Des Moines office to accommodate the company's growth after three years of being in the market.

Signature Consultants entered the Des Moines market in 2009 to support an existing national client and was able to grow tremendously by building strong partnerships with numerous other employers and consultants in the Des Moines area.

"We were excited to put operations in the Des Moines market, which is a great place for employers and employees alike. The Des Moines market aligns to Signature's values of relationships first," said Jay Cohen, president and CEO of Signature Consultants. "We're proud of our track record in recruiting top technology talent to fulfill the IT staffing needs of Des Moines' business organizations, and we're thrilled to be growing in support of our consultants and candidates."

In Des Moines, Signature Consultants' team of recruiters and account managers places consultants who are proficient in project management, business analysis, Java and Internet development, Quality Assurance and database management. The Signature Des Moines office can be found at 6901 Vista Drive, West Des Moines, IA 50266.

Signature Consultants has been recognized by Staffing Industry Analysts as the "#1 Best Staffing Firm to Work For" in the United States for the past two years, as well as the 24th largest IT staffing firm in the United States.
